Student Guide to Travel Reimbursement for “NCEM Reimbursement” Training Classes

This reference document is to explain eligibility of travel reimbursement for students as well as provide instruction for submittal of reimbursement forms. If you have any questions about your eligibility or the reimbursement process, contact the NCEM Training Office at (919) 825-2574 or training@ncem.org

ELIGIBILITY

- Travel must involve a destination location at least 50 miles from the student’s regularly assigned duty station or home, whichever is less.
- An OVERNIGHT STAY is required.
- An eligible student is limited to three stipend reimbursements per calendar year unless:
 1. The student is a paid employee of a local or Tribal office of emergency management; or
 2. A waiver is requested by the eligible student’s Agency Administrator in writing with the following information:
 - (a) Student Name
 - (b) Class Name
 - (c) Dates of Class, and
 - (d) A description of how the Agency will benefit by the student attending.
 - (e) The waiver request must be received by the NCEM Training Field Supervisor no later than ten business days prior to the start of the course. If the waiver is denied, the Agency Administrator may appeal to the NCEM Logistics Chief in writing no later than five business days prior to the start of the course.*
- If you meet eligibility requirements, you are allowed an overnight stay the night prior to the class start date (provided the class begins before noon). If the class begins after 12 pm, you are only allowed an overnight stay the night prior to the beginning of class if you are travelling from more than 200 miles away.
- If the class ends after 2 pm, and you are travelling from more than 200 miles away, you are allowed to stay an extra overnight stay the evening after completion of class.
- NCEM will clearly annotate, in the Course Offering Specific Section of the TERMS class registration site, if reimbursement is authorized. NCEM will not reimburse travel for a class which does not contain the reimbursement annotation.

SUBMITTAL PROCESS

- It is the individual student's responsibility to submit the proper paperwork upon completion of class. For NCEM Reimbursement classes, the Travel Reimbursement Forms and instructions for completing these forms will be attached to the course advertisement.
- Please print your own forms prior to attending class.
- You must provide an original itemized receipt from your hotel or lodging.
- No receipts are required for meal reimbursement.
- To ensure compliance with NC General Statute 138-6(c), it is strongly encouraged to submit the travel reimbursement application to the instructor, instructional staff, or NCEM Training designee upon completion of the class. Students who do not submit the reimbursement paperwork to the instructor, instructional staff, or NCEM Training designee, and wish for reimbursement, must notify NCEM Training Staff via the training@ncem.org email address within 5 calendar days of course completion; and NCEM Training staff must be in receipt of the travel reimbursement request within 15 calendar days of the course completion date. If NCEM Training is not notified in 5 calendar days, and/or in receipt of the travel reimbursement request within 15 calendar days of class completion, the prospective applicant shall be determined ineligible for reimbursement. The NCEM Training and Exercise Branch Manager will accept eligibility appeals up to 20 calendar days past class completion.
- You should expect to receive a reimbursement check from N.C. Department of Public Safety fiscal office in 4-6 weeks from the time NCEM receives the request.
